

State Police Embroiled in the Campaign

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gov. Orval E. Faubus' campaign manager denied today that Faubus was using State Police to distribute campaign material, as charged Monday by Kenneth Coffelt, one of Faubus' five foes in the July 31 Democratic primary.

State Sen. Clarence Bell, who heads the Faubus campaign, said State Police had investigated the charge and found there was no basis for it.

Coffelt said he and his wife saw Lance Alworth, the University of Arkansas football star and Faubus' youth campaign manager, passing bundles of Faubus literature to five state troopers late Monday in the Dark Hollow section of North Little Rock.

Bell's version of the incident: "State Police had arrested a speeder and two other patrolmen drove to the scene for investigating purposes. It just happened that a Faubus campaign car came along and stopped at the scene."

Herman Lindsey, director of the State Police, also denied the allegation.

At Harrison Monday night, Rep. Dale Alford asked nearly a score of rhetorical questions — mainly aiming at Faubus' pocketbook.

Speaking on the Harrison courthouse lawn, Alford asked whether or not it is true that Faubus, who is seeking an unprecedented fifth term, owns one quarter of the Foreman Cement Co. at Foreman?

The cement plant is a subsidiary of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. which is headed by another Faubus backer, W. R. (Witt) Stephens.

Faubus, in the meantime, spoke before 800 persons Monday night at a gathering off Main Street in Newport where he stressed the progress Arkansas has made during his years of office.

He touched lightly on his opposition, chiding Sid McMath, a former governor, for spending too much time out of the state while in office, and Alford for not knowing what he is doing in the race.

Of Coffelt, Faubus reiterated his feeling that the Little Rock attorney is an entertaining candidate "but I leave him to the judgment of the good people of this state without further comment."

The governor again referred to David Cox of Weiner as a man unable to organize a fish fry as a reference to a scheduled fish fry at Weiner which failed to materialize.

McMath appeared briefly on a statewide television hookup Monday night and decried action by the Democratic State Committee in prohibiting all but Democrats from voting in the July 31 primary election.

Earlier at a $10-a-plate breakfast in Little Rock, a film depicting McMath's life was shown to 474 persons and $10,610 in campaign funds was raised. It later was televised statewide.

Faubus commented that the film was an extravaganza "produced in Hollywood, edited in St. Louis and paid for with New York money."

Following a showing of the film, McMath said the results of the campaign to date indicated a runoff in the governor's race.

Faubus spoke at England and then attended funeral services for Rubin Pettit of Delaney, a state Highway Department employee who was killed in a highway accident last week.

At a news conference Monday, Cox announced that his campaign headquarters would open Wednesday in Little Rock. He also attacked Faubus, McMath and Alford as being products of one political machine.

Today's political schedule shows Faubus appearing at Brinkley, Wynne, Harrisonburg and Paragould. Alford will appear at Berryville, Eureka Springs, Rogers and Bentonville while Coffelt travels to Wooster, Greenbrier, Guy, Quilman, Damascus, Southside, Bee Branch, Morganton, Choctaw, Clinton, Bokiburg, Dendard, Leslie and Marshall.

Honors Distributed by Local Legion Auxiliary

Mrs. Joe Jones

Mrs. Joe Jones, past president of District 12, American Legion Auxiliary, and Mrs. Thomas Compton, past president of Leslie Huddleston Unit No. 12, led the state in program activities for the year 1961-62. Mrs. Jones was first to reach 100% membership quota for District 12, receiving three awards. She is a member of Hope 12 Unit.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Compton, Hope Unit 12 received nine plaque awards in the following categories: Poppy, Americanism, Membership, Jr. Activities, Civil Defense, National Security, Community Service, Publicity and Music.

Marynello Branch

Miss Marynello Branch was named winner of the "Little Miss Poppy" contest held by the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Arkansas at the state convention at Little Rock last week.

The judging was based on the extensive use of her activities during the May Poppy Day sales promotion and her costume.

Marynello is the 6-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Branch of Hope.

Stocks Up on Margin Reduction

NEW YORK (AP)—Many key stocks leaped upward by $1 or $2 at the start of trading today in an initial response to the reduction of margin requirements.

Activity was heavy as the market reacted in the manner expected by most of the experts.

After the close Monday the Federal Reserve Board reduced the margin to 50 per cent from 70. This means that a purchaser is now required to put up only one half of the purchase price of listed securities he wishes to buy and that he can borrow the balance.

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rallied vigorously on a broad front today in response to the first cut in margin requirements in two years.

Buying was so heavy that the ticker fell as much as 20 minutes behind floor transactions in mid-morning.

Most pivotal issues posted gains of $1 to $2 and some were up more.

The surge was expected by most market analysts as an immediate reaction to the Federal Reserve Board's margin move which makes it easier to buy stocks on credit. The margin cut means an investor must put up only half of the purchase price and can borrow the remainder.

For the last two years purchasers were required to put up 70 per cent of the purchase price to buy listed securities. They could borrow up to 30 per cent. At 11 a.m. the Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was ahead 14.14 at 594.96. Monday this average gained 4.65.

Secret Group of Doctors to Aid Canada

By MAX HARRELSON

REGINA, Sask. (AP)—One of the closest guarded secrets in Saskatchewan today is the identity of a handful of doctors who have signed up to work under the government's disputed compulsory medical care plan.

Because of mounting tension over the plan and the doctors' strike against it, government officials feel that the doctors who have broken with their colleagues would be in jeopardy if their names and locations were known.

There is a possibility, they say, not only of reprisals and other punitive action within the medical profession, but of violence and boycotts in the communities where they are working.

So far the Medical Care Commission, which administers the compulsory medicare program, has dealt only in numbers in discussing the cooperating doctors. According to the latest commission figures, 34 of the province's 700 practicing physicians actually have signed up.

The figure hasn't changed much in the past four or five days, but claims for payment under the plan have begun to arrive in increasing numbers.

Details on these also are being kept secret, but it has been disclosed that about 200 claims have come in. These are from patients rather than the doctors who performed the service. Under the plan, the doctors send in their claims once a month.

The plan, designed to provide medical care for everyone, is financed by single person and family assessments and by general taxation.

The idea of permitting either patients or doctors to bill the commission was one of the compromises worked out in an attempt to meet the objection of doctors who didn't want to deal with the commission. In the latter cases, the patient simply pays the doctor and then files a claim for government reimbursement.

Goodman and His Band Disagree

NEW YORK (AP)—Sixteen members of the Benny Goodman band are back in this country with some mild differences of opinion about the band's six-week tour of the Soviet Union.

Most agreed on arrival by air Monday that the tour was a success, but there were a couple of discordant notes sounded about the jazz master's choice of music.

Trumpeter John Frosk said, "We had many more modernistic arrangements with us, but Benny picked out other music because he felt that the Russians would like certain tunes."

"Benny wanted to play all of his old Carnegie Hall things—arrangements of the 30s—while we wanted to play good modern music," Frosk said.

Not among the arrivals was trumpeter Joe Wilder, who had a dispute with Goodman and refused to appear at the last concert in Moscow. He is now in Sweden.

Goodman himself did not return with the 16, but is on a visit to London.

5 Southern Colleges Desegregate

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Southern School News reported today that five Southern colleges and universities desegregated their classrooms this summer for the first time.

Negroes were enrolled for classes with white students in June at Florida State University, Georgia State College, the University of Houston, East Carolina College and Mary Washington College, which is the women's division of the University of Virginia.

The publication said these new admissions give the Southern and border states 157 desegregated, tax-supported colleges and universities in a total of 285.

Among private schools, the publication said, Stetson University at Deland, Fla., desegregated its summer school for the first time, with the admission of nine Negroes. Duke University and Alcorn College have decided to extend desegregation from their graduate schools to the undergraduate level.

Medicare to Be Voted on Next Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has agreed to take a crucial vote on the health care for the aged bill a week from today, dashing hopes of Democratic leaders for passage this week.

Republican senators, after a round of hard bargaining with Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, forced him to delay final action until next week in return for an agreement to limit debate.

The unanimous consent agreement, obtained late Monday, is expected to bring final action on the legislation Wednesday or Thursday of next week.

However, the Senate fate of President Kennedy's Social Security health plan probably will be decided next Tuesday.

The agreement provides for a roll-call vote then on the question of tabling and thus killing the proposal of Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., which embodies the President's plan.

Anderson and his supporters were optimistic but said they would like to recruit some additional votes so they would have a comfortable margin.

Adopt Rules on Vote of Absentees

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The attorney general's office laid down ground rules today for absentee voting in Arkansas elections.

Sheriff R. E. Pritchard of Franklin County and Madelyn Rucks, secretary of the Union County Democratic Central Committee, had asked that absentee voting regulations be spelled out.

The opinion by Asst. Atty. Gen. Milas H. Hale said: "Only persons who will be absent from their voting area or are too ill or disabled to come to the polls may cast absentee ballots."

"Applications for ballots may be made in person, by mail or delivered to the county clerk by a close relative of the voter, but the voter himself must sign the ballots."

"Ballots may be cast in person at the clerk's office during the two weeks before the election, mailed to the clerk's office to arrive not later than 6:30 p.m. on election day, or delivered to the clerk's office by a close relative during regular voting hours."

Ted Carlton Henderson Dies at 60

Ted Carlton Henderson, 60, a retired farmer of Nashville, died Monday, July 9 in a Nashville hospital.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Nashville and a member of the Masonic Lodge of Benton.

Survivors include the wife, Mrs. Edna Mae Tedford Henderson of Nashville; a brother, Artee Henderson, Texarkana; six sisters: Mrs. Lou Ella Springs of Brentwood, Calif.; Mrs. Ola Tedford, Texarkana; Mrs. Callie McBay, Nashville; Mrs. Evie Lee Norwood, Nashville; and Mrs. Ethel Townsend of Hope.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at County Line Church near Nashville. Burial will be in County Line Cemetery under the direction of Lattimer Funeral Service with Rev. Norman Grant officiating.

Seek Bigger Cut of Arms Dollar

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A 10-member study group will meet Wednesday in Little Rock to discuss plans for securing a larger share of national defense spending for Arkansas.

William H. Bowen, president of the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce, will direct the meeting. He was selected chairman of the study group in a meeting of representatives from 4 Arkansas cities June 13 in Little Rock.

Bowen said the purpose of the meeting Wednesday would be to discuss budget needs, proper course of action, the vehicle to put the project in operation and the mechanics for successfully promoting the overall objectives.

Outcome of the meeting will be presented at another meeting July 13, which will be attended by all the representatives who attended the first meeting.

Vienna Doctors Strike for Fee

VIENNA (AP)—Austria's 13,700 doctors launched a 24-hour strike today, demanding higher fees from the government-run compulsory health insurance pool.

The doctors had demanded an increase that would have raised their fees by 5 per cent under the new contract. Under the old contract the average monthly income of a medical practitioner was estimated as about $400.

Italian Metal Workers Return

TURIN, Italy (AP)—A nationwide strike of metalworkers, marked by three days of riots and turmoil here, ended today.

The strikers claim to represent more than a million workers in such heavy industries as steel, automobiles and shipbuilding. Nearly a fourth of the nation's unionized metalworkers live in this prosperous industrial city.

The workers demanded a new contract with improved wage scales and a 40-hour week in place of the current 4-hour week.

Economy to Be Good for Last Half 62

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A bright picture of the nation's economy, at least for the next six months, was painted Monday at a two-day seminar of the Arkansas Council of Retail Merchants.

William A. Hoffelfinger, an assistant economist in the bureau of business and economic research at the University of Arkansas, also predicted that business in Arkansas likely would be the best since World War II.

Basically, Hoffelfinger said, there is nothing wrong either with the nation's economy or that of Arkansas.

"Arkansas historically has been insulated from national economic fluctuations, but we can now expect national economic activities to affect the state much more quickly and much more strongly," Hoffelfinger observed.

Forrest H. Pollard, an assistant economist for the university's industrial research and extension service, also spoke at the seminar.

Pollard indicated that for the next six months no great change in the national economic situation is in sight.

However, he said, "In the last quarter of this fiscal year, a general slowdown in economic activities can be expected. We may have a little trouble in obtaining that economic growth we seek."

The seminar winds up today.

Planting of Cotton 2% Under 1961

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas farmers have planted 1,300,000 acres of cotton this season, or two per cent less than they planted last year, the Crop Reporting Service said today.

The service said the planting season was more favorable this year than in either of the past two years and cotton got off to a good start. There have been some problems due to wet weather, the agency reported, but the crop is in good condition and is developing satisfactorily.

The first forecast of production will relate to prospects on Aug. 1 and will be issued Aug. 8, the service said.

Last year Arkansas farmers planted 1,415,000 acres. The 1951-0 planted acreage average is 1,28,000.

Crossett Co. and Union Lose Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—A National Labor Relations Board examiner recommended Monday that unfair labor practice citations be lodged against both the Crossett Co., Crossett, Ark., and the International Wood Workers of America Union.

Examiner Reeves H. Hilton said a one-year contract negotiated Jan. 15 was faulty because the union did not represent a majority of the workers at the firm's new flakeboard mill at Crossett.

Hilton recommended that neither side be allowed to follow terms of the contract until a majority of the workers is represented, as determined in an NLRB election.

He added in his recommendation that the company, however, should not alter provisions of the contract or deny its benefits to any employee.

The recommendations are subject to a final NLRB review.

'Switchboard' Satellite Is Put in Orbit

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A "switchboard" satellite rocketed into orbit today as a possible first step toward a space relay system for swift, worldwide transmission of radio, telephone and television signals.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced at 6:35 a.m. EST that the complex Telstar satellite was in orbit. It thundered away from Cape Canaveral at 3:35 a.m. atop a towering three-stage Thor-Delta rocket.

Officials scheduled the first communications experiments with the satellite tonight and if all goes well, American television viewers this evening will see the first live TV pictures beamed by satellite.

Within two weeks, Telstar may serve as a relay point for the first live transatlantic television show and a number of telephone and radio experiments between the United States and western Europe.

Foreign Aid, Medicare Top Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two measures at the top of President Kennedy's legislative program—foreign aid and health care—hold the attention of Congress this week.

Senate consideration of health care for the aged under Social Security could continue into next week. The House, meanwhile, will be debating a $4.7-billion foreign aid authorization measure, with final voting scheduled for Wednesday or Thursday.

The President made a strong plea for both measures at his news conference last week.

The foreign aid measure has been passed by the Senate, but in considerably different form. The money provided is substantially the same in both the Senate-passed bill and the version the House Foreign Affairs Committee reported out.

A group of House Republicans and Democrats is mounting a drive to nullify the aid bill a provision that could have the effect of blocking future appropriations for the program when the federal budget is not balanced.

Sponsors of the medical measure claim enough support to get the bill through the Senate and to clamp a limitation on debate

Legion Offers Bill for Prayer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Department of the American Legion has drafted a resolution calling for an amendment to the U.S. Constitution, allowing voluntary prayer to be said in any place at any time. The resolution termed the June 25 decision of the U.S. Supreme Court, disallowing recitation of a prayer in New York public schools, a "usurpation of power."

Party Club to Make Decision

DES ARC, Ark. (AP)—A meeting of the board of governors of the Arkansas Democratic Women's Clubs will be held today to determine whether Mrs. Howard Perry of Bay will have to resign as president of the Craighead County club.

Mrs. Clara Mae Brown of Des Arc, state president, said Mrs. Perry has violated the bylaws and constitution of the organization by taking a job in Gov. Orval E. Faubus' campaign headquarters.

Mrs. Perry has said she would not resign.

Tanganyika Farm Expert Tours Here

Faustine Muzaga

Faustine Muzaga, an agriculturalist from Tanganyika, arrived in Hempstead County July 8, to observe and work with the Extension personnel in the county.

Mr. Muzaga's present position and duties are senior field assistant, Ministry of Agricultural Extension Work, at the village level. He expects to perform similar duties upon returning to Tanganyika, however he expects additional duties which will include taking charge of a district with subordinate staff.

Mr. Muzaga hopes to learn about agriculture and rural life in Arkansas and Hempstead County by visiting nearby farms, homes, elementary and secondary schools county extension office and other rural institutions.

Cayce B. Smith, Assistant County Agent for Negro work, stated that Mr. Muzaga is residing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McWashington, 613 S. Hazel St. He will attend meetings and make farm home visits with the agents during his six weeks stay in the county.

He will also be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Snowden, a Farm and Home Development family of Nolen community, for a few days observing and assisting with farm work.

Gets Second Chance to Resign

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The executive board of the Arkansas Democratic Women's Club met briefly Monday and decided to give Mrs. Howard Perry of Bay a second chance to resign her position as head of the Craighead County organization.

Mrs. Clara Mae Brown of Des Arc, state president, sought Mrs. Perry's resignation last week after a news release from the campaign headquarters of Gov. Orval E. Faubus announced she was working actively for the governor.

It also identified Mrs. Perry's position with the county club.

The organization's bylaws prohibit a member's club affiliation from being used in connection with any candidate.

Mrs. Perry has declined to step down as president and charges that Faubus opponents had raised the issue.

Mrs. Brown said that even if the board does not force Mrs. Perry to resign, the county organization can do so if it wishes. She said the governor's candidacy has nothing to do with the matter, but the group is merely trying to preserve its rules.

Underground Nuclear Test Is Scheduled

CAMP MERCURY, Nev. (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission scheduled a secret underground nuclear blast today and warned it would be strong enough to sear the eyes of anyone spying with binoculars.

Another detonation, set for above ground today, was postponed for the third time, this time for 24 hours. Winds were gusting up to 25 miles per hour on the southern Nevada desert.

Both devices were described as low yield, indicating a destructive power of 20 kilotons or less. A kiloton is equal to 1,000 tons of TNT.

The rescheduled blast, postponed from Saturday, will be set off a few feet above ground. The AEC refused to give details.

First daughter of a president who he married in the White House was Maria Hester Monroe, daughter of President and Mrs. James Monroe.

According to the Florida Alcohol Rehabilitation Program, the occurrence of blackouts, or memory lapses caused by alcohol, is an early sign of alcoholism.

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Thirty-three years of happy married life, then bang! Mother died and my brother came to live with us. Since then marriage has deteriorated into a daily cat and dog fight, with my brother the bone of contention. My husband can't abide him. Two women under one roof may be the Chinese symbol for trouble, but two men living in the same house are even worse.

If my brother says the sun is shining, my husband says it's raining. I'm the buffer, ever trying to make peace. They disagree over the silliest things; like yesterday when I roasted a leg of lamb for dinner. As I brought it to the table last evening, nice and brown and juicy, with potatoes O'Brien and baby carrots arranged around it pretty, Brother says, "My that sure looks good. Roast lamb is a favorite of mine."

At that my husband jumped up, flings down his napkin, yells, "The very smell of it makes me sick!" and stamped out. When he came back at midnight I was waiting for him.

"This can't go on," I said. "If you don't want my brother here, kick him out." Contrary to his middle name, "No, I won't," he said, stubborn as a mule. "He's company for you while I'm working." Now did you ever hear of anybody as illogical? My nerves are so on edge I've had to call the doctor. Whatever shall I do?

—Upset
Dear Upset: This is no new development but doubtless something which has been lurking beneath the surface for a long while. You've probably babied your husband all 33 years of your married life, just as your mother evidently spoiled your brother. Inevitably you've got two brats, each jealous of the other's rights.

Hunter Long and Robert, Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. John Vesey came home last week from Houston after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Mary Hall.

Mrs. Mildred Trotter is with relatives in Longview, Texas this week.

Little Miss Julie Cornell, Midland, Texas is here to see her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Glennie Graham, Hollywood, Fla. arrived Tuesday to visit Mrs. Taylor Stuart.

on your hands.

The very fact that your husband refused to accept the responsibility of asking your brother to leave shows he lacks the will to stand on his own feet. In turn, your brother revealed his weakness by moving in with you instead of going his own way, however lonely.

One thing is sure: two is company, three's a crowd. Much as you care for your brother, your husband comes first. Tell your brother so. Discuss the move amicably before your husband. Encourage them to be mature by assuming they are.

Dear Helen: I like a boy who is lame. Because of his infirmity my parents oppose our dating. Aside from that lameness, the result of a childhood ailment, he is healthy, a fine student, has a good sense of humor and likes me. Though we've known one another two years, my father and mother still refuse to let me go out with him. Is being lame a crime? —Confused

Dear Confused: Reasonably enough, your parents want to see you happily married to a boy whole in body and mind. They fear that by consenting to your going with this boy, they will be approving of a friendship which could, and probably would, lead to marriage.

Provided the boy is eligible, I can't see lameness as a deterrent. It's been my observation that a person suffering from a physical handicap is often twice as brilliant as a so-called "normal" human being. Character and mental capacity are far more important than a mere lameness. Unless your parents have some other objection which they've not disclosed, you may be able to win them over on these grounds. Try it!

Dear Helen: I am 26, my husband 28 and we've been happily married six months. Considering that I have two children by a previous husband, this is something of an achievement.

However, a small black cloud on the horizon worries me. Every three or four weeks my husband leaves our home Friday evening promptly at seven and doesn't return till four a.m. I knew before we married that he liked to get off with the boys, make music and sing. At first he took me along; now I'm so much excess baggage, I never ask where he's been or what he's done still, it troubles me.

There are places I could go, friends I might visit, but having been married before I know what happens when a husband is one place and a wife another at two in the morning. I also know how children react to this; so I sit home, worry and wait. If I'm wrong, tell me so. —J. M.

Dear J. M.: Ignore your husband's disappearing act! If you can provide him with as good or better entertainment at home, he will quit his wanderings. Since he enjoys singing, practice his favorite songs until you can accompany him on the piano.

If you can't, learn. Discuss your progress. Try out new songs together. Share your recreations. Invite the boys with whom he sings to the house. Give them special refreshments. Let your husband do a little boasting about your cooking. The way to a man's heart is still his stomach. In return, your husband should see that you get a social break too. Tell him, but phrase it in a way that he will think the suggestion his. And, if you want a repeat, make sure that the people you're with and the place you go are to his liking too. Discuss these things out. Plan them together. Make him feel needed.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Successful Marriage."

Majors Gird for All-Star Game Today

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rival managers Ralph Houk of the American League and Fred Hutchinson of the National League voiced the same sentiments as they led with their aces in the 32nd All-Star baseball game today.

"I'd like to use as many players as possible," said Houk, whose last encounter with a National League rival led to a New York Yankee World Series triumph over the Hutchinson-led Cincinnati Reds. "But the prestige of the American League is at stake. The most important thing is to win. After all, we have lost four of the last five."

"If the players who are good enough to be chosen to appear in the All-Star game," said Hutchinson, "then they should be given an opportunity to play. However, I don't intend to put them in for a token appearance. Only if they are an integral part in winning the game. That comes first."

President Kennedy planned to be among the 45,015 spectators at the new D.C. Stadium to witness the third All-Star game in the nation's capital. He will be the first president to attend an All-Star game since the late Franklin D. Roosevelt threw out the first ball in the 1937 game here. The Americans won that one, 8-3. The Nationals won the 1955 game in Washington, 7-3.

The game, scheduled for noon EST, will be carried on network (NBC) radio and television.

Sixty per cent of the proceeds go to the player pension fund. The second game will be played

Johansson on Sports Tour of Europe

GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP) — Former world heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson and his long-time advisor Edwin Ahlqvist are off to Vienna early Wednesday for a round of topsecret talks with European and U.S. boxing promoters.

Johansson, who has recaptured his European heavyweight title, is eager to get a chance to win back the world crown.

The national Swedish news agency TT speculated tonight that Johansson and Ahlqvist are going to discuss a match against Archie Moore with Los Angeles promoter George Parnassus, who is expected to fly to Vienna.

Reports here said Parnassus was on his way to Europe to get Johansson's signature on a contract for a bout in Tijuana, Mexico, in October against Moore.

"I can only say," Ahlqvist said, "that Ingemar is neither going to meet Eddie Machen nor Zora Folley."

Machen and Folley are both ranked high behind top-ranked Sonny Liston as contenders to the heavyweight title. Machen is No. 2 and Folley third on the National Boxing Association list. Johansson comes fourth and Moore sixth.

In Chicago's Wrigley Field, Monday, July 30.

The Americans lead in the inter-league summer series, 16-14, with one game ending in a tie.

Houk named Jim Bunning, one of the most successful of American League pitchers in All-Star history, to open for the junior circuit. Hutchinson countered with Don Drysdale, who leads the majors with 15 victories.

Bunning, with a 9-4 record for Detroit this season, was the pitching star in last year's two All-Star games when he worked five perfect innings, striking out four batters. He also was credited with the Americans' triumph in the 1957 game.

Two civilian inventions during World War II were the mine detector and the radio proximity fuse.

Cleveland Is Issue in Basketball

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Basketball Association, resuming its meeting over the admission of Cleveland's American Basketball League franchise, appeared ready today to present Pipers' president George Steinbrenner with its terms.

The NBA recessed its meeting late Monday night after a long and reportedly stormy session in which the owners were said to have agreed to the terms that would be presented to Steinbrenner.

If then apparently rests with Steinbrenner to accept or reject the terms that would bring Cleveland and its highly touted star, Jerry Lucas, into the older pro circuit as its 10th member. If Steinbrenner accepts, it likely would mean the end of the one-year-old ABL.

Steinbrenner, who was in another room of the hotel where the NBA owners met, said after the meeting had recessed Monday night that nothing had been decided definitely.

"In fact," he said "we haven't been in the meetings. We've been completely on the outside. We've been watching TV."

While Steinbrenner and his staff were watching TV, the NBA was reported to have hammered out terms which would include the payment of a $300,000 franchise fee plus a $100,000 performance bond. The franchise fee would be spread among the nine present NBA teams.

A large share if the deal is consummated, is expected to go to the NBA's Cincinnati Royals, who balked at letting Cleveland into the league. Lucas, three-time All-America from Ohio State, turned down a Royals' offer to sign with the Pipers.

Drysdale in Both 1961 Star Games

Drysdale pitched in both 1959 games, retiring all nine batters he faced in the first contest. The 2-year-old Los Angeles Dodger right-hander was not so fortunate in the second game, giving up three runs on four hits in his three-inning stint.

Houk said he planned to follow Bunning with Minnesota's Camillo Pascual and Cleveland's Dick Donovan, who are tied for the most victories in the American League at 12 each.

Hutchinson also leaned toward the pitchers with the most imposing won and lost records. He said he planned to use Bob Purkey (14-2) of the Reds and Juan Marichal (12-5) of the San Francisco Giants, as his second and third pitchers.

The American League's first change probably will be the removal of Mantle for Detroit's Rocky Colavito after three innings, the minimum required of any starting player. The Yankee slugger is still limping on a weak left knee, the result of an injury last May.

"If I take Mantle out, I will switch Wagner from left to right and send Colavito into left field," Houk said. "I also intend to keep Battey behind the plate at least through the middle innings to catch Pascual with whom he has worked all season. Then I may let Romano (Cleveland's John Romano) or Howard (New York's Elston Howard) do the catching."

Hutchinson did not reveal any of his contemplated changes but he indicated he would use Stan Musial in a pinch-hitting role. The 41-year-old St. Louis star, who hammered three home runs in Sunday's game against the New York Mets, was named to the All-Star squad for a record 19th time.

The American League starting lineup boasted 11 home runs to 93 for the Nationals and the entire squad, exclusive of pitchers, had 212 homers to 180 for the National League team. However, the Nationals had 10,300 hitters to the All-America from Ohio State, turned down a Royals' offer to sign with the Pipers.

Junior Golf Tourney at Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Defending champion Ricki Richardson, 17, of Fort Smith, teed off with 48 other youngsters today in the 7th annual Arkansas Junior Chamber of Commerce golf tournament at the Fayetteville Country Club.

Richardson has won the crown for the past two years. Last year he fired a winning 140-total, including a 4-under-par 5 to set a course record.

He shot practice rounds of 70 and 69 Sunday and Monday. Herman Johnson, a 17-year-old Fayetteville duffer, is the only other player returning from last year.

Both Richardson and Johnson were members of a four-man squad representing Arkansas in 1961 in the international Jaycee tournament at Denver, Colo.

The top four in the 36-hole medal play this year will travel to Huntington, W.Va., for the international tournament. The dates are Aug. 20-24.

Those entered in the tournament range in ages from 12 to 18.

Why we call ourselves pipeliners of energy

Natural gas is too narrow a term to describe our business, even though it still accounts for more than three-fourths of our income. So is refined petroleum products—though we pump millions of barrels of motor fuels, fuel oils, and LPGases to the booming Midwest.

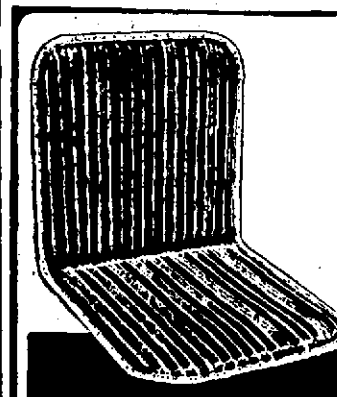

The right word is energy—energy to power and heat and light a growing America. As pipeliners of energy—we are always in search of new sources of energy, as well as new ways to move it, store it, supply it. Potential new forms of energy: liquid natural gas and gasified coal. Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Houston, Texas.
